A CHILD ATTACKED BY HOGS.-A little child of John Girl, on the Mansfield road, some five years of age, was attacked by a lot of swine, so ten or fifteen in number, on Monday evening, and was dreadfully mangled about the arms, head and shoulders before it was taken away from them. A man at Mr. Sadler's happened to see the attack, and immediately went to the rescue of the child, or it would have been torn to pieces by the ferocious animals. There is a law against swine and other animals running at large, and it seems to us these half starved swine ought to be put up by their owners before they attack some

AGENTS WANTED FOR The Official History OF THE WAR,

Its Causes, Character, Conduct and Results. BY HON. ALEX H STEPHENS, A Book for all Sections and all partici.

This great work pre-ents the only com-pletd and impartial analysis of the Causes of the Was yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great. conflict only known to those who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its foun-tain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stepheas from his positio as sec nd fficer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfailed with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCE. TIONS, we pay mise a change of fare, both agreeable and salu ary, and an intellectual reat of the highest order. The Great American Wav has AT LAST found a hig-torian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, caudid and impartial tr atment which truth and ju tice so urgently demand. The intense desire everywhere manifest ed to obtain this work, its Official character
